

CWA/IBEW Bargaining Update for Friday, August 1, 2008

Negotiations continued today between CWA/IBEW 2213, IBEW New England and the Company in Rye, New York and additional talks took place in Washington DC. Little or no progress was made on wages, benefits, pensions or jobs during discussions at both locations.

With only 24 hours remaining before contract expiration, the Company has yet to come to the table with a package anywhere near what is necessary to reach agreement.

Stay in touch with your Local for the latest updated information.

The bargaining Committees thank everyone for all your support and mobilization efforts.